Beauty Day Benefits Residents at JFK Hartwyck at Oak Tree

Edison, NJ: On August 21, 2006, JFK Medical Center's Extended Recovery Unit for Traumatic Brain Injury will be hosting its second "Beauty Day" for its residents.

A local business located in Edison, Looking Good Beauty Salon and Spa will be donating their services to create a day of beauty and relaxation for the patients that live at the Hartwyck at Oak Tree facility. This special event will consist of a number of beautification services, including pampering services, hair care services, manicures, waxing, and massage therapy.

The 15-20 patients participating are adults with brain injuries from trauma such as car accidents, stroke, and assault. The event begins at 11 a.m. and will end at 3:30 p.m. For more information, contact Eryn Sinclair at Hartwyck at Oak Tree at 732-906-2100.

The JFK Hartwyck Centers are a network of three nonprofit long-term care facilities located in central New Jersey.
