Solaris Health System Staff Recognized as Best Doctors

Doctors from JFK Medical Center and Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center listed in "Best Doctors" issue of New York Magazine

Edison, NJ—Solaris Health System is proud to announce six doctors from JFK Medical Center and Muhlenberg Regional Medical Center have been recognized in New York Magazine's "Best Doctors" listing. This recognition highlights the top doctors in the New York Metro Area according to Castle Connolly Medical Ltd. research. Doctors David Brown, DO, Richard Bullock, MD, Theodore Eisenstat, MD, Martin Gizzi, MD, PhD, Clement Maccia, MD and Gregory Oliver have been selected for their outstanding commitment to their related specialties.

"This prestigious acknowledgement reinforces the level of care and compassion the medical staff of Solaris Health System offers," states Mr. John McGee, President and CEO of Solaris Health System.

New York Magazine's listing represents about a quarter of the top 10 percent of doctors in the New York area as determined by Castle Connolly. The final list is a result of a tabulation of 12,000 nomination forms from medical professionals throughout the metro area, which includes New York City, Westchester County, Long Island and portions of New Jersey and Connecticut.

BEST DOCTORS—ADD ONE

“One of the highest compliments for a doctor to receive is a recommendation from another medical professional. This peer-reviewed survey is a great honor to our team because it demonstrates that surrounding doctors would trust their patients, family and friends in our care,” states Mr. McGee. “Our team’s outstanding knowledge, professionalism and conduct allow our patients to receive the best treatment available.”
