Whispering Knoll Hosts National Assisted Living Week Festivities

Edison, NJ – Whispering Knoll, an assisted living facility in Edison, will celebrate National Assisted Living Week with daily activities from September 10 through September 16.

“We wanted to celebrate National Assisted Living Week with a wide variety of activities,” says Bernice Ambrose, Director of Community Relations for Whispering Knoll. “The residents and visitors can enjoy something new every day.”

Each day has a theme, starting with Sunday, September 10, Grandparents Day, and then travels through time with performers and entertainment with themes from various decades. There will be a Rope and Gun Show for the Wild Wild West-themed day, and entertainers and impersonators such as Charlie Chaplin, Frank Sinatra, and Arthur Murray Dancers take residents through the 1920s, 1940s, and 1960s.

For more information about the week’s activities, please call 732-744-5541.

Whispering Knoll is a three-story assisted living facility located in Edison – adjacent to JFK Medical Center. The community includes 118 studios, one-and two-bedroom apartments, as well as a special care community for residents with memory impairments. It is ideal for the active, independent older adult who needs mild assistance with personal needs. The staff and facility accommodate not only one’s current lifestyle, but evolves with individual and changing needs. Special staff is available to meet the needs of those with memory disorders, such as Alzheimer’s and dementia. The beautifully designed facility features numerous unique amenities, including scenic gardens, peaceful patios, a gift shop, library, a cinema, gym and game room, formal dining room and bistro. For more information, call 732-744-5541.
